INCLUSION AND ETHICS IN THE WRITING CENTER

Keynote Speaker: Professor Kim L. Jackson

Professor Kim L. Jackson currently serves as the Department Chair for the Visual and Performing Arts and an Associate Professor of Humanities and Dance at Tarrant County College Northwest Campus. She received both her B.A. in dance and her M.A. in drama from Texas Woman's University in Denton, TX. She is currently working on her Ph.D. in Education specializing on professional studies in education with a focus on experiential learning, professional development and diversity and inclusion in higher education.

Mary Nell Kivikko Excellence in Scholarship Award

The award is open to all writing center professional staff, graduate tutors, and undergraduate peer tutors in the South Central Writing Centers Association region (Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana). Applicants must be current members of the NTWCA.

Proposals should focus on the subject area of writing center theory and practice. The 250-word abstract of the entry should include a title, and the name and contact information of the presenter. Please submit entries to the current NTWCA President. Electronic submissions only, please.

Outstanding Tutor Award

The award is open to part-time or full-time consultants, as well as graduate or undergraduate peer tutors at a writing center in the SCWCA region. Nominees must be current members of the NTWCA.

Writing center directors must nominate a consultant who is an employee in his/her writing center. Nominations should include the name, institution, address, telephone, and email address of the consultant and/or tutor as well as a letter explaining why the individual should be considered for the award, including information regarding tutoring abilities and contributions to the center. Please submit entries to the current NTWCA President. Electronic submissions only, please.

Details and submission deadlines are available on our website. www.ntwca.weebly.com
